As a young single mom, Cate battled homelessness and financial instability. Goodwill of Colorado hired her as a cashier and Cate thrived in her new role. She was promoted several times and is now a store manager leading a team of 50.

Cate says, "I love my community and my employees. Goodwill is in this together with you, they will not let you fail."

When you support Goodwill's programs through your generous donations, you help create opportunities for Coloradans like Cate. Thank you!

IRS regulations prohibit charitable organizations from establishing or affirming the value of contributions.

THIS IS YOUR TAX RECEIPT

Goodwill of Colorado is a charitable 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. Because no goods or services were provided in exchange for these material goods, your donation is tax-deductible. Federal law states that donated clothing and household goods must be in "good usable condition or better" in order to qualify for a tax deduction.
